Hon. Dep. Minister of Tourism

Hon.

*Mark Okraku
Mantey*

On this occasion of the 65th Anniversary of the Miss Ghana beauty pageant and as someone who has been part of the creative arts and tourism industry for a long time, I understand the struggle and I can say with all experience that it has definitely not been an easy task and the brand deserves all the accolades that is being showered on it.

Pageants like Miss Ghana, aside the entertainment and tourism value have provided a lot of opportunities for the contestants and even individuals who work in the creative arts industry. I am besides myself with joy and honor to be part of this year's celebration as special guest of honour and representing the Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture, Honourable Dr. Awal Mohammed.

On behalf of the Ministry of Tourism, Arts and culture, I say thank you to the Exclusive Events Ghana for keeping the torch, the Miss Ghana, burning and for their contribution towards the creative arts industry.

Ayeekoo for the great fits they have achieved and for the lives they have touched along the way.

I would like to use this opportunity to encourage civil society, cooperate bodies and individuals to support such an initiative because not only does it promote our rich Ghanaian heritage but also because it also helps improve the socio-economic needs of our people by creating jobs and opportunities for them. Indeed, it has been a food chain that we have all benefitted from.

Furthermore, Miss Ghana beauty queens have become Ambassadors for Ghana whenever they step out of the country.

Happy 65th Anniversary to Miss Ghana and Congratulations to Inna Patty and her team at Exclusive Events Ghana upon their 10th anniversary as franchise holders and organisers of the Miss World Ghana, Miss and Mr. Ghana brands! I am positive that the brand will keep on moving forward and achieving greater heights.

Ayeekoo Miss Ghana! Long live Ghana!

Let's have a good event tonight.

Inna Patty

Chief Executive Officer – Exclusive Events Ghana Ltd

A delightful warm welcome to the representative of the Honourable Minister for Tourism, Arts and Culture, the Deputy minister, Hon. Mark Okraku Mantey, members of the Diplomatic Corps, our distinguished Traditional Rulers; The Gyasehene Of Akuapem And Chief Of Amanokrom, Nana Osim Kwatia II, Abokobi Mantse, Nii Mohenu, Nana Frepomaa

Sarpong Kumankuma (Dormaa Dwantoahemmaa / Leader & Chair of CPP), Okatakylie Nana Anim, representative of the Ga Mantse, Lady Justice Julia Sakordie, cherished sponsors, Miss Ghana Queens, Mr Ghana, Contestants and their parents/family/loved ones, distinguished invited guests, and our cherished friends from the media; to the grand finale of Miss Ghana 2022, the 65 edition. Coincidentally, it also marks the tenth anniversary of Exclusive Events Ghana Limited (EEGL), as a franchise holder.

Yes, it is exactly a decade since Exclusive Events Ghana took over the mantle as Franchise holders of Miss World Ghana and the sole and certified organisers of the oldest and prestigious running pageant nationally, Miss Ghana.

A brand that was initiated by our first President, Osagyefuo Dr. Kwame Nkrumah. A legend with great vision and a true patriot!

Today, we are proud to say that the team at EEGL along with our strategic partners/ stakeholders such as sponsors, media houses, queens/ titleholders, runners-ups, contestants and their respective families, indeed all Ghanaians and you have contributed to the ability to keep this touch burning irrespective of the challenges.

I am blessed to have taken over the reins of this reputed brand as the youngest franchise holder in the history of Ghana and that of Miss World, at 28 years with just the burning passion to help ensure that the brand continues the Nkrumah legacy to empower our young women, who in turn use their God given beauty and strengths to positively impact lives ie which is the central theme of our existence as humans and a brand ie “Beauty with a Purpose”.

Today, my team and I are thankful that we have not only achieved this vision but also established Miss Ghana Foundation that helps ensure all social intervention projects are sustained to the benefit of posterity, country and world at large.

We are proud of the fact that under our stewardship, we came very close to clinching the Miss World title but by placing 2nd runner up, in our first year. Our eyes are still on the Miss World title as well as hosting the international pageant and it's finals here in Ghana!

Under our management, the Miss World team along with the chairwoman, Julia Morley and reigning Miss World titleholders /Queens visited Ghana a few times, which is a novelty in Ghana's over 50-years history of participating in Miss World.

EEGL initiated novel projects and thus far are the only beauty brand globally to have achieved those particular feat. For instance, the concept of three cars, the educational scholarships, Women in IT programmes in partnership with IPMC, Miss Ghana School of life, Partnership with National Commission on Civic Education (NCCE) aimed at educating our youth on our civic rights and responsibilities (thereby churning out more patriots), and that of National Blood Service to help encourage all to adopt the regular and voluntary lifestyle of donating blood, the Mr Ghana segment - which helps to mould fine gentlemen in society with purpose etc “Ambition is the path to success. Persistence is the vehicle you arrive in” as Bill Bradley succinctly puts it. These unprecedented successes were birthed amidst myriad of herculean challenges and our persistence helped chart the rough seas. Just like any seasoned entrepreneur, we found ways to navigate and are still at it. Some of these challenges were in the form of finances, managing mind sets, perceptions, entrenched cultures, and institutions.

It is us our hope that in many decades to come, we shall as Albert Einstein opines: “Try not to become a man of success but rather to become a man of value”. In our context, the Miss Ghana brand shall continue to offer value to society.

Thank you to all stakeholders- sponsors, queens, runners-up, contestants & their parents/family, media, team at EEGL and MGF, my family and friends for all the support and in particular this year considering the current economic challenges... May the good lord bless you all.

Enjoy the show!

Miss Ghana 2020

Monique Mawulawe Agbedekpui

Miss Ghana 2020

Martin Luther King once said Everybody can be great because everybody can serve. Reflecting on my reign as Miss Ghana over the past two years, I can say that, even though the journey hasn't been easy, I'm truly grateful for all the experiences that came with it. The greatest lesson I learnt as a queen is that humility and hard work pays.

As a younger girl, I always had the passion to be of service to the less privileged in society. Even though I was trying in my own little way, I was always looking for an avenue to help me fulfill this passion on a larger scale. So the Miss Ghana platform was just right for me because they embarked on a lot of projects under the foundation and I wasn't disappointed.

After winning the Miss Ghana 2020 pageant, together with my runner up Annalisa Anangfio, the amazing and hardworking team under the Miss Ghana foundation, Miss Inna Mariam Patty, Lady Khadi, Mr Isaac Quianoo, and Miss Laila Isaka, we embarked on a lot of projects such as;

- Paying for the cost of corrective surgery for a 16 year child suffering from scoliosis
- Blood donation exercises
- Mentorship and entrepreneurship session with the head potters
- COVID 19 PPE distribution to schools, hospitals and market women
- Mentorship sessions across senior high schools etc

Joining the Miss Ghana foundation allowed me to touch lives and put smiles on a lot of faces.

COVID 19 presented a lot of challenges in our bid to get projects done but we never gave up and were always fulfilled to see the impact our projects had on the community, thanks to our sponsors who always came through for the projects. We appreciate your kind hearts and believe you're going to support our in-coming queen to do even more.

My tenacity was tested when I had to prepare to represent our country Ghana in the just ended Miss world pageant. This was especially challenging because the Covid-19 pandemic was at its peak and thus preparing under strict social distancing and other COVID restrictions was quite daunting. Seeking for sponsorship was incredibly more challenging because most businesses were going through difficult times, but with the great support of Exclusive events Ghana, my God Mum Becca, my mum and Dad, my siblings, friends and family and some well-wishers, I was able to go and successfully represented our dear country.

Being Miss Ghana 2020, reigning through 2021 to 2022 has been a fulfilling dream come true and a life changing experience for me. Even as my reign comes to an end, I'm excited and looking forward to the new beginning, with greater achievements.

I would like to thank the Almighty God for the gift of life and for how far he has brought me. A very big thank you to Exclusive events Ghana for trusting and giving me the opportunity to represent the brand.

To team Lawe and you who believed and supported me throughout my journey, I love you all and God bless you!

Wishing the most deserving queen out of the 16 contestants all the best. I want you to know that no challenge is insurmountable. You got this, you can do it!

God bless our homeland Ghana! and Long Live Miss Ghana.

Miss Ghana 2020 2nd Runner Up

Throughout my life I have been reminded of this saying, Los Vivos Saben Que Van a Morir, Pero Los Muertos no Saben Nada. Entonces 'Carpe Diem'. Which is translated 'the living know that they will die, but the dead do not know anything, so seize the day'.

My inspiration for joining Miss Ghana was built on my passion of being a wonderful torch bearer for my county, for the world to see my county in a beautiful light, to illuminate the lives of my people and my undying dream of expressing the beauty and culture of Ghana and what it means to be Ghanaian.

And I think I was able to achieve that in my time of being Miss Ghana 2020 runner-up.

During this Covid-19 season my reign has been quite distinctive. I told myself that I wanted my reign to be victorious and I can describe it in three words ie extraordinary, educative and impactful. Never in my life did I think that a small city girl like myself, could be an inspiration and a positive impact. I am really grateful to the Miss Ghana Organization for helping me make history and to teach young girls that their dreams are feasible and whatever they may lack, they have in abundance in something else. There is beauty in our diversities.

I would like to say thank you to Miss Inna Patty, Lady K and Mr. Isaac Quainoo for their mentorship and support. To my parents, Mum and Dad, I love you so much, you are my hero. To Jay Jay, Lester and Regobert, I couldn't possibly complete this journey without you. To team Lisa, I am grateful and I love you from the bottom of my heart, to Tracy Owoo, thank you for your encouragement and advice. To Monique Mawulawe (Miss Ghana 2020), for being best the sister I could have ever asked for and most importantly to Jehovah for making every step I take successful.

As a new chapter opens on this journey, I know beautiful things await me.

God bless Miss Ghana! Long live Ghana!

Rukayatu Yakubu is my name. I am 22 years old. I come from Worawora in the Oti region of Ghana. I am ambitious, career oriented and a very optimistic person and I have a good eye for beauty and aesthetic

My mission statement is to be able to explore my passion and to use feminism to represent other issues. Also to be a good role model to the society and empower women to go for what they thrive and that you don't have to have it all to take the step in achieving your goals but you learn along the way.

My goal is to advocate on mental health and depression and to use the opportunity to make the best of my potential and contribute to the organisation's growth. Also, to seek a challenging position in the Miss Ghana competition to expand my knowledge.

Deborah Esi Wilson aka Mimi Brown

Hi Lovely People of Ghana,

My name is Deborah Ewuraesi Wilson, with the Brand name Mimi Brown. A final year student of Takoradi Technical University, offering HND in hospitality management.

I believe the purpose of life is just not to be beautiful or happy, but to be productive and useful in the Society to make a difference in the world.

I love to dance, I love adventure and I love cooking. I deem it a great honour to be part of this year's Miss Ghana 2022 and I am looking forward for your vote to keep me in this competition.

My goal is to inspire, motivate and uplift young women to the realization that they are strong independent and capable, that they can accomplish whatever they set to do.

Thank you so much and see you on stage.

Naa Yirenskyiwaa Ellis-Awuku

Hiya! My name is Naa Yirenskyiwaa Ellis-Awuku. I am a student of Datalink University-Tema currently pursuing in Msc in Strategic Management. I am Fante and Ga. I am honoured to represent the northern part of Ghana. I am very much fond of cooking hence the reason I actually own a small scale business with my mum called Yiren's Fante bakes. Acting, dancing, listening to music, traveling and taking shoots are my favourite thing to do. Apart from this I am a fitness enthusiast. I mostly love to be surrounded by my family and loved ones.

The reason I joined Miss Ghana 2022 is to help channel me into greater opportunities to be able to have that platform to accomplish my purpose; to provide an educational environment like schools, library and lavatory for the less privileged children especially in most villages in Ghana.

Irene Vanessa Vifah

My name is Irene Vanessa Vifah, I'm a 27 year-old lady and the last of eight children (six girls and two boys).

I had my Basic School education at KNUST Basic School in Kumasi, went to St. Louis Senior High School (also in Kumasi) and had my undergraduate and graduate education from the University of Ghana.

I'm a versatile, driven and ambitious woman with multifaceted skills. My ambitions are mainly driven by how much I care. I'm passionate about women empowerment and believe it is everyone's duty to support this cause.

Given the opportunity to be Miss Ghana 2022, I will endeavour to hatch a two-sided project focused on under-privileged children and young women.

Angela Ohenewaa Acquaaah

Currently I'm a medical student at Novgorod State University in Russia. I grew up in Dansoman and always found myself in hospitals because my aunt was a nurse and I remember going with her to work every weekend. Those trips greatly influenced my childhood and even adulthood because the sight of people at the brink of death because they couldn't afford healthcare and disabled children lacking the necessary resources to improve their condition made me want to divulge in healthcare and positively impact in any way possible, hence my career choice. Health as they say is wealth. And for this reason I want to improve the health of the average Ghanaian by improving sanitation, improving the quality of food and water and creating more awareness on the need for personal hygiene.

I should be voted for as Miss Ghana because I've done the groundwork and necessary research to see to it that my goals and prospective projects are a success and I have the passion to take the Miss Ghana Organization to the next level and expand its' reach.

Cassandra Emefa Agbana

If I win the Miss Ghana title, i would use my title to increase awareness of volunteering to help those less fortunate than myself. I would strongly advocate for mental health awareness and fight for the education of a girl child. I enjoy modelling and traveling the world. Please help me increase my chances of winning Miss Ghana 2022 title by voting:

Rocklyn Krampah

I am in the person of ROCKLYN ELINAM KRAMPAH. I am 19 years of age and the only child of my parents. I come from Kpando in the Volta Region. I completed my junior high school level at Kingscourt International School, Ashaiman, completed my secondary school level at Datus International School, Tema and currently a level 100 student of the University of Ghana studying Bachelor of Arts in Psychology, English and Theatre Arts.

My career ambition is to become an educational psychologist. I love to sing, dance and cook. My role model is Oprah Winfrey due her determination to achieve her goals in spite of all the challenges she faced.

My project will be on Mental Health amongst the Youth.

My mission statement to empower women, motivate the youth and help the less privileged in society.

Thank you

Kessie Baroness Abrema

I am Kessie Baroness Abrema. I am 20 years of age, I love to socialise and I love to assist people when they are in need and I have the resources to do so. My mission is to help young youths (females) try to setup something for themselves and stop going after older men and fraud boys for money and iPhone.

My goal is to empower young ladies never to be disappointed in them. I must be voted for as Miss Ghana 2022 in order to help achieve my mission, inspire the youth and be a model for them; especially girls.

Francisca Selorm Agama

My name is Francisca Selorm Masiku Agama. I am 24 years old. A Psychology and human development graduate from Regent University College. I love to read, sing and sketch.

The mind is our power house, for any change to take place; it is traced to the mind.

I would urge you all to support me on my journey to becoming the next Miss Ghana so I could reach the Ghanaian society with the responsibilities and privileges of service that comes with being a purposefully beautiful Ghanaian lady, to intensify mental health awareness.

My goal is to empower us all to understand that it is ok not to be ok and there should be no room for stigma when mental health issues are raised because to me, an improvement in mental health is key to our wellbeing.

Dzifa Dzudzor

Hello Ghana,

My name is Millicent Dzifa Dzudzor and I am 26years old. I hail from the Volta Region; however, I was born and raised in Bolgatanga, the Upper East Region and permanently resident in Accra, Ghana. I am a graduate of the University of Ghana, Legon, where I obtained a Bachelor's degree in Administration and a Master's degree in International Relations-LECIAD.

I aspire to be a light, an example to the many young women and children in our society and across the globe; loving myself, my experiences, family, others and life, striving every day to be more patient, charitable, empathetic, kind and to live life with integrity
